

Puberty

Name.....

Class.....

ACTIVITY 1

Using the following list of keywords complete the sentences to show how humans develop.

developed	ovaries	sperm	puberty	reproduce	testes
eggs	sex hormones	sexual	generic	fertilisation	adulthood

Children are unable to _____ because their sex organs have not fully _____.

When females are aged between 8 and 14 and males aged between 10 and 18 the body begins to change because of _____. In order for humans to have offspring the _____ of the male must produce _____ and the _____ of the female must produce _____. When humans have reached this stage they can reproduce by the process known as _____ reproduction. _____ occurs when the nuclei of the egg and the sperm join together. The above changes occur during the period of growth called _____. This is the key stage in human development before _____.

Puberty

ACTIVITY 2

Explain the meaning of the following keywords

Puberty _____

Testes _____

Ovaries _____

Sex Hormones _____

Fertilisation _____

